The event or moment I regret about the most

Any unpleasant moment in life is necessary for us to teach something or pass a life lesson. Not a single moment from my memories causes me regret, because each lesson makes me who I am now

Why I decided to become a donor?

My kids are a big deal to me! Every day they give me a huge palette of emotions. I am very happy that I have the opportunity to give someone this meaning and decorate someone's life with the most important thing that can be in it - children!

My most vivid memory from childhood

Early morning. I open my eyes. From the kitchen comes the delicious aroma of fresh pancakes, which are still sizzling in the pan. Grandma gently pushes strawberries. The radio in the kitchen is playing softly. The sun begins to peek through the trees through the window
