The event or moment I regret about the most

The way I lived with my ex-husband, in the same apartment with my mother, our room for three (me, ex-husband, son) was 8 square meters

Why I decided to become a donor?

I want to do something to help people who have long dreamed of having children, but they do not succeed. I don't care so much about the reward I get, but rather the realization that I can change other people's lives, that they will become even happier as a result

My most vivid memory from childhood

My dad went with me to ride on a high hill, where he hit his lower back. The moment was memorable, Dad was afraid, but he rolled with me
