Why I decided to become a donor?

I have a goal. This requires funds. Already participated in the program, it is important that I know that I can help other people in the issue of the appearance of children

My most vivid memory from childhood

When I went to pick mushrooms in the forest with my grandfather and got lost. I remembered all the instructions before the campaign. I went back to the trail and sat down on a fallen tree. I was waiting for my grandfather. I knew he'd come back for me. I remember that he cried a lot, because he was glad that he found me
