Memories of what I wanted to do, but I was afraid and didn't do it

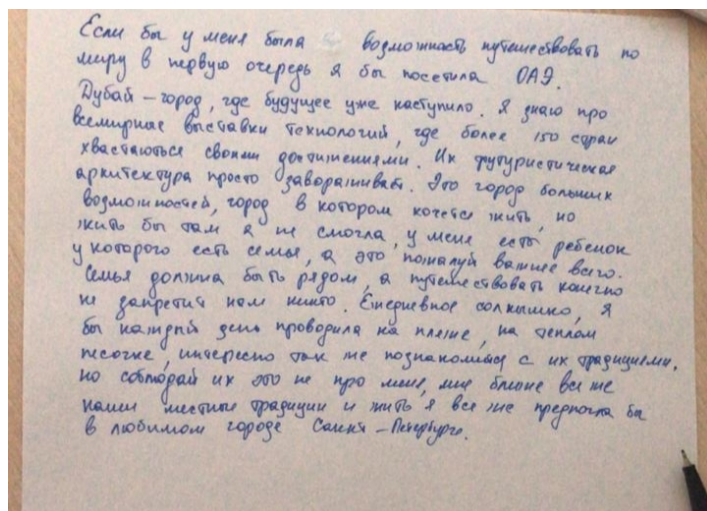

Why I decided to become a donor?

My family is in trouble, my second cousin can't have children. We are very close and I understand her grief. Therefore, I want to help families who find themselves in a similar situation to find a little happiness.

My most vivid memory from childhood

My mother raised me alone and we didn't live very well, but my mother always made me happy. One day, I was very ill, and I was admitted to the hospital. After I was discharged, my mother gave me a TV set. In our yard, no one had such a thing. I was very happy
