My most vivid memory from childhood

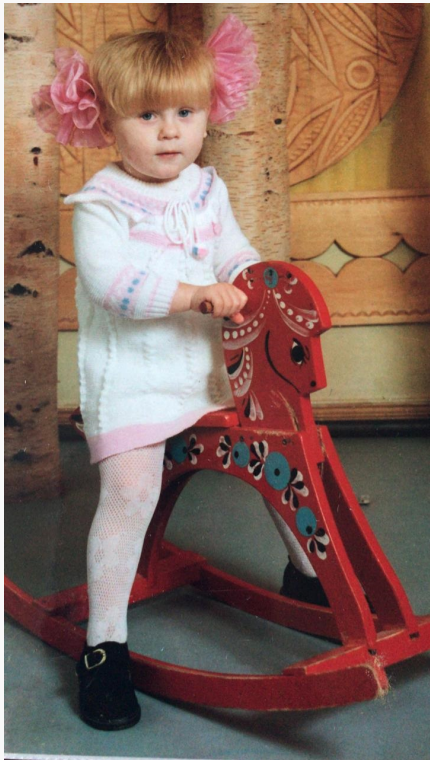

On New Year's Eve, my aunt came to visit us. I opened the door, dressed up and happy, knowing that she was carrying a sweet gift. By the way, she still gives me a sweet gift, and I am insanely happy to plunge into my childhood. So, when I opened the door, she said that she saw Santa Claus flying away and called me to go outside and look under the Christmas tree. We put it there ourselves and ran around as kids. Under the tree was a gift bag with my name on it, and inside was a huge chocolate egg. I've seen this for the first time. I really believed in this character and I was very happy. Perhaps this moment is etched into my memory very strongly precisely because of the emotions that I experienced that day
