Why I decided to become a donor?

Now many people have health problems that they can't have a child, after I gave birth and became a mother, I realized that a child is the greatest happiness and everyone who really wants it should have it. Money also plays an important role (I want to save up for a good holiday with my child)

My most vivid memory from childhood

Fishing with my father, going to work with him, and falling in love for the first time
