The most hilarious moment in life

We went for a walk as a child with a friend in the school yard. He was through the fence, and the fence was sharp-tipped. Well, when we got through it, my foot slipped.. And I hung on. Yes, my fur coat was pierced through the tip, and I was left hanging. My friend laughed at me for a long time, so long that I ended up hanging on the fence for 3 hours, waiting for my dad to come home from work, who took me off. I don't even know why I didn't think to just unbutton my fur coat and get out of it, but it was even funnier:)

The event or moment I regret about the most

I didn't have time to say goodbye to my grandparents.

Why I decided to become a donor?

My life position is that I always want and try to help everyone and in everything. A friend became a donor, told me, and I thought, why not just help your family and friends, and turned to your clinic.

My most vivid memory from childhood

When I was 4 years old, I wanted to travel. I talked to my friend and we decided to go! On a walk, while my parents weren't looking, we quietly moved towards the bus stop, jumped in and drove away. Not knowing where to go, I was afraid, but I, as the initiator, said that we were going to warmer climes and everything would be fine. Of course, 2 four-year-old girls immediately aroused suspicion, and after a couple of stops we were already met by our parents.
