The most hilarious moment in life

Once, while in the Crimea, we went to the observatory to look at the Moon and Mars from a large telescope. I was about 7 years old. It was night, dark, people in the side were chatting nicely and listening to the guide. We - me, my grandparents-decided to go to the curb and have a snack, we were very hungry during the trip. We stand, look at each other with grandpa, eat sandwiches. And so good - clean mountain air, trees, warm-warm. And then we turn abruptly to the wild cry of the cat, which not only meowed, but screamed at the top of its voice. We look and look, at dusk we do not understand what is happening, people also began to boil to the side, fell silent. Silence. We decide to approach, and there... our granny beauty simply wanted to sit on the curb and also eat with us for the company. And in the end, accidentally landed on the tail of a hungry white cat, which was rubbing all this time near her in search of a delicious sausage. We even have a picture left :)

The event or moment I regret about the most

I take the position that there is no need to regret anything.

Why I decided to become a donor?

I have a healthy and strong body, so I can help other people find their happiness. In families where they want a child, but can not have one, the appearance of a baby becomes the most memorable and most joyful moment in life. And the child grows up with loving parents who wanted and planned it.

My most vivid memory from childhood

In the kindergarten after lunch, we children went to bed as usual. They were already going to their beds, covering themselves with a blanket and closing their eyes. And then the teacher comes up to me and says affectionately: "Sofiyka, wake up, your mother has come for you..." Mamaaa? How's Mom?" It works, doesn't it? I go out and see-really Mom. In the eyes of children's happiness, sincerity and ... misunderstanding. It turns out that her lights were turned off at work and all processes on computers were suspended. And it's sunny and warm outside. And now my mother is already buying delicious ice cream, and then we P the happiest people in the whole world-go to the city garden to ride on rides.
