Why I decided to become a donor?

The IVF procedure is not just a choice, it is a great desire, effort, hope, desire to have a baby born, created for love. I respect people who, despite everything they have had to face, do not give up and sincerely burn with the desire to give life, care and love. And this is my small contribution to their future happiness.

My most vivid memory from childhood

When my parents introduced me to my adopted brother, who later became my own person and gave me incredible memories

Personal motivation (scanned essay sheets)

Вдоль дороги я планирую посетить
 Италию, очень красивая страна
 с прекрасной архитектурой.
 На Мальдивы, увидеть пляж
 с синими сияющими пиктонами.
 На север, увидеть северное сияние.
 А вообще, если в деньгах нет проблем, почему бы не отправиться в кругосветное путешествие?
