Your achievements.

Write down the main achievements in your life (minimum 50 words)* For example: at school, university, at work, sports achievements, etc.

Self-realization is the most important achievement. I was always an excellent student and, in principle, devoted a lot of time to studying. This helped to realize my potential not only academically, but also creatively. My students, my scientific articles and conducted concerts are what I am proud of and what I wake up for in the morning.

The most hilarious moment in life

When I was about five, my mother bought me a huge set of markers. I was left alone with the new markers and the snow-white wall in the hallway. It seemed to me that the wall looked too boring, and I decided to “help” it. On the wallpaper I drew a huge pink sun with green rays, a blue sea with yellow fish, and myself - in the form of a purple man with orange hair. When mom returned from the store, she froze on the threshold. Her first question was: “Daughter, what is this?” I answered, beaming with pride: “Magic window. Now we will always have summer!”

The event or moment I feel most proud of Report concert of my students. For me it was not just a demonstration of learned dances or songs. It was the culmination of a whole year of work, full of excitement, overcoming and real miracle. I'm proud not of the result itself, but of the path we've walked together the green mile, the king speaks, the passion of Christ, Ivan Vasilyevich changes profession

Favorite film

Favorite TV series

Twin Peaks, Game of Thrones, Dr. House, Assassination

The event or moment I regret about the most

I made a stupid mistake in the Unified State Exam in chemistry, and now I don't have 100 points. I try not to regret anything anymore

Why I decided to become a donor?

My future profession - a family psychologist - taught me to appreciate the most important thing in life: the opportunity to give love and be a family. I see so many couples face difficulties on the path to this happiness. The opportunity to become a donor is my real chance to help by giving not just a medical procedure, but hope and the opportunity to hear children's laughter in my home

My most vivid memory from childhood

I was 4 years old, I didn't know how to swim, but I really wanted to. Dad took me on his shoulders and rolled me around, and I “swimmed”

Personal motivation (scanned essay sheets)

Примечие: решение стать доктором-законодательным результатом моего жизненного пути, моих ценностей и моей профессиональной ориентации. Мне с детства отказана награда знаний и неискаемая экареция. Ятог человек, который не может сдуть на шесте. Моя красотворность - это не бездарность, а источник силы. Она помогла с отличием закончить школу и не останавливаться на достигнутом. Сейчас я сама преподаю а учусь - но уже на семейного психолога. Эта постоянная динамика, стремительно развивается и быть невозмож - моя сущность.
