The most hilarious moment in life

The moment when I was walking with my nephews. We walked for a long time in the sweltering heat, when suddenly a heavy downpour began, we got completely wet, jumped in puddles and laughed until our stomachs hurt.

The moment when my printed edition (zine with photographs) was purchased for the archives of the Garage Museum.

The event or moment I regret about the most

When entering college, I changed my major at the last minute from Theater Painting to Graphic Design. Although this choice gave me many acquaintances, opportunities, and a profession, sometimes I think about how everything could have turned out.

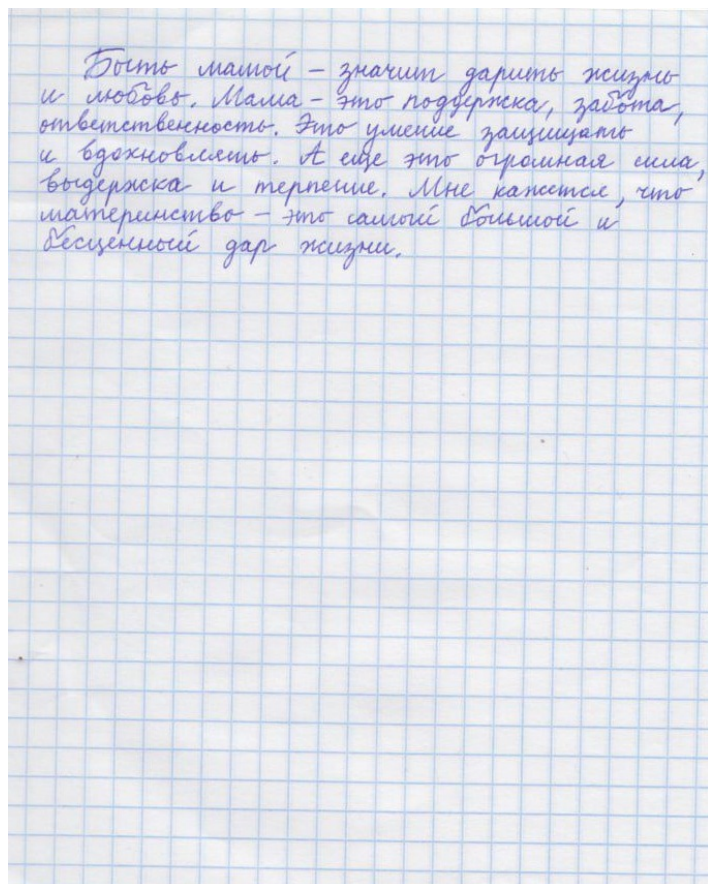

Why I decided to become a donor?

I am amazed at what a miracle it is - the birth of a new person. And I find the idea of helping a family become happy parents incredibly inspiring.

My most vivid memory from childhood

Flying a kite with my older sister on the beach during sunset. I was 5-6 and it was pure magic.
